

Don Bosco Cristo Rey High School and Work Dress Code

Overview: The dress code, described in detail below, ensures that every student dresses in a professional, modest, and safe manner. Don Bosco Cristo Rey High School’s dress code corresponds to business professional dress. Students are expected to follow the exact same dress code for work as they do for school, unless otherwise specified. Parents must be sensitive to the fact that their daughters and sons might be assumed to be much older than their actual age. For the comfort and security of all our students, they should dress modestly. Students must be in full dress code compliance before the start of the school day and must remain in dress code at all times, including while participating in a school- sponsored activity, unless they are participating in a specific school activity that requires them to follow a different dress code.

Reservation of Rights: The school reserves the right to determine what constitutes appropriate dress. The following is meant as a set of guidelines; however, in all cases the School and the Corporate Work Study Program makes the final decision.
